

NICOLAS PROST EUROSERIES 3000 CHAMPION!

Yesterday, Nicolas Prost won the Euroseries 3000 Championship title in the final round on the Mugello circuit (Italy). The son of the 4-times F1 world champion came first with 60 points in his first year in the championship with 2 pole positions, 1 victory and 7 rostrum finishes.

Nicolas Prost: "I really wanted to win this championship. I've been very consistent throughout the season and that's paid off. Now, I'm satisfied, as I've accomplished my mission! I really enjoyed racing in the Euro3000 this year, and I want to say a big thank you to all those who've helped me win the title –all the Bull Racing team members as well as my partners without whom none of this would have been possible.

For the future, first of all I'll concentrate all my efforts on the A1GP Team France so that we can win the title. Concerning next season I'm going to evaluate all the openings. Convincing an F1 team to give me a test would be a very important step for the future of my career."

Next month, Nicolas will be back in action in the A1GP World Cup of Motorsport.
